PROMOTIONAL PARTNERSHIPS FOR HEALTHCARE COMPANIES

Videos about the exact problem you solve

The fandom and metrics behind my doctor’s office series, and the ROI they can bring you

Dear Team,

My satirical doctor’s office series has over 10 million views on Insta and TikTok. Every episode pokes fun at the everyday frustrations your product exists to fix: getting through to the office, waiting on hold, and finding an appointment.

Fans laugh along because they’ve lived it. They name their own doctors and dentists in the comments, say it’s exactly what calling their office sounds like, and keep asking for more.

That makes the series a natural home for a booking or telehealth brand. While viewers are laughing at the hassle, your product shows up as the natural solution to it, not as an ad they scroll past.

The pages ahead show the fandom and engagement behind the series.

Given the chance, I’d build your company a specialized campaign around your goals, my existing series, or both.

My flagship series, set in the tri-state doctor’s office: the front desk, the voicemail, the hold, the insurance and the waiting room.
